

New England Crime Analysis & Intelligence Conference

Hosted by MACA & NESPIN

Monday, May 11 - Friday May 15, 2020 | Hotel 1620, Plymouth MA

Member Tuition: $450 Non-Member Tuition: $500 Student Tuition: $250

Early Bird rates available if registered and paid in full by 2/11/20.

Join us in historic downtown Plymouth, Massachusetts for our 23rd Annual Training Conference.

This conference offers a full week of hands on computer training, break out sessions, keynote addresses and nightly networking events. Breakfast daily, welcome reception dinner and hosted luncheon, along with morning coffee breaks and afternoon snacks included.

Keynote addresses by: Chief Edward A Flynn, Milwaukee Police Department (retired)

Gordon Graham, National Law Enforcement Expert

Dr. Laura Huey, Executive Director Canadian Society of Evidence Based Policing

Tom Meehan, Cybersecurity Expert

Breakout Sessions*:

*Topics are examples based on past year's schedules

Introduction to Crime Analysis | Social Media & Open Source Investigations | The Dark Web | Cell

Phone Record Analysis | Mental Health | Crime Mapping | Microsoft Office –Access, Excel, Word

Who Should Attend

Crime & Intelligence Analysts | Crime Analysis Supervisors | Financial Analysts | Detectives and Investigators | Command Staff | Communications & Dispatch Personnel | Private Sector/Security Professionals | Criminal Justice Professors and Students

Visit <https://macrimeanalysts.org/Conference> to register and view the tentative schedule

Massachusetts Association of Crime Analysts | P.O. Box 6123 | Chelsea, MA 02150

@macrimeanalysts